The corporate governance of SoftBank Corp. (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Softbank Group are guided by a fundamental concept of “free, fair, and innovative,” and a corporate philosophy of “Information Revolution — Happiness for everyone.” SoftBank Corp. (the “Company”) aims to be a provider of essential technologies and services to people around the world through its endeavors in various businesses in the information and technology industries.

The Company recognizes that it is vital to maintain effective corporate governance in order to realize this vision. It continues to strengthen governance within the Group by taking measures such as formulating the SoftBank Charter of Corporate Behavior to share the fundamental concept and corporate philosophy of the Company. The Company also sets out various rules with which group companies and their officers and employees must comply.

The Company’s corporate governance system centers on the board of directors, audit and supervisory board members, and the audit and supervisory board. Four of the 11 directors are external directors to ensure robust mutual monitoring between the directors. The nominating committee and remuneration committee are established voluntarily as advisory bodies to the board of directors. The nominating committee and remuneration committee comprise the CEO and independent external directors to ensure independence of the committees. Two of the four audit and supervisory board members are external members to ensure independent auditing functions, thereby strengthening the monitoring of management.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

Supplementary principle 4.1.(2) Efforts to realize the medium- to long-term management plan and response in the event of failure to deliver on the plan

The Company constantly reviews the entire group’s medium-term business plans based on their progress and market trends and discussions are also held by the board of directors. However, the Company withholds its medium-term business plans from public disclosure based on its view that it is important to maintain flexibility and agility of management in order to promptly respond to changes in the business environment.

The Company intends to give explanations at the earnings results briefings and the General Meeting of Shareholders as necessary.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

Principle 1.4 Cross-shareholdings

The Company may hold shares under a so-called “cross-shareholdings” structure when it has an important purpose in terms of management strategy other than pure investment purposes, such as anticipating a business alliance or business synergies to sustainably increase enterprise value.

Every quarter the Company verifies that the shares are held according to the purpose, and appropriately disposes of shares for which either the dilution of purpose of holding or the absence of economic rationality, or both, are found, after taking into consideration the share price and market trends.

With regard to whether or not having cross-shareholdings is appropriate, the Company verifies the purpose of holding and economic rationality and reports the results to the board of directors.

The exercise of voting rights related to the shares in these cross-shareholdings is handled appropriately after comprehensively considering whether the proposal will contribute to the sustainable improvement of corporate activities.

Principle 1.7 Related party transactions

Prior to their approval, all transactions at the Company are deliberated by specialist divisions such as the Accounting, Finance, and Legal divisions, based on internal regulations and according to the scale and materiality of the transaction. The process for approval is structured to enable audit and supervisory board members and the Internal Audit Department to check on the details at all times.

The Board of Directors Rules stipulate that the Board must approve transactions conducted by directors if these may compete or cause conflicts with the Company’s interests. Each transaction is subject to approval by the board of directors and the transaction results are reported to the Board. In addition, related party transactions are monitored regularly based on the Related Party Regulations, while the status of transactions is disclosed in the Annual Securities Report and non-consolidated financial statements.

Principle 2.6 Roles of corporate pension funds as asset owners

The Company has not joined a specific corporate pension fund but has introduced a defined contribution corporate pension plan. In addition to selecting the operation and administration body and investment products as well as providing educational opportunities to employees, the Company gives an explanation at the time new employees join the Company.

Principle 3.1 Full disclosure

(i) Guided by a corporate philosophy of “Information Revolution – Happiness for everyone,” the Company aims to be a provider of essential technologies and services to people around the world through its endeavors in various businesses in the information and technology industries. The Company discloses these endeavors on its website.

(ii) The Company discloses its basic views on and basic guidelines for corporate governance based on the principles of Japan’s Corporate Governance Code in the Corporate Governance Report.

(iii) Directors’ remuneration at the Company is intended to motivate directors to increase enterprise value and grow profits, and to function as consideration for their performances. This remuneration comprises basic remuneration, bonuses, and share-based payments and is deliberated by the remuneration committee within the aggregate amount approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The board of directors shall give the greatest possible respect to recommendations made by the remuneration committee, and remuneration shall be determined by a resolution of the board of directors. The remuneration committee deliberates on details regarding the system such as the remuneration determination process, in addition to basic remuneration, bonuses, and share-based payments. Individual remuneration is determined based on individual roles, responsibilities, performances, and other factors, taking the results of operations and management environment into account.

(iv) In electing directors and dismissing director candidates of the Company, recommendations are made to the board of directors following deliberations by the nominating committee. The board of directors gives the greatest possible respect to the recommendations made by the nominating committee and elects director candidates in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Board of Directors Rules, proposing them for election and dismissal at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Criteria for electing director candidates include qualities and abilities that will contribute to increasing enterprise value and a deep knowledge of the candidate’s respective field of specialization.

In electing audit and supervisory board member candidates, the board of directors elects candidates in accordance with the Audit and Supervisory Board Rules and the Audit and Supervisory Board Members Audit Regulations with the approval of the audit and supervisory board, and these candidates are proposed at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Criteria for the election of audit and supervisory board member candidates include independence and a fair, unbiased attitude. The Audit and Supervisory Board Members Audit Regulations stipulate that at least one of the audit and supervisory board members must have considerable knowledge of finance and accounting.

(v) Director candidates are proposed to the board of directors following deliberations by the nominating committee and elected by the board of directors.

The Company discloses the reasons for the appointment of each of the candidates for director and audit and supervisory board member in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders in which the election of these candidates is proposed.

Supplementary principle 4.1.(1) Determination of scope of delegation to management and disclosure thereof

The board of directors exists as a decision-making body of the Company, and the agenda items for discussion in the board of directors are set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and the Board of Directors Rules.

In addition, the Company has introduced the executive officer system with the aim of strengthening corporate governance and speeding up decision-making and execution.

At the Company, decision-making authority is delegated to the management by the board of directors with respect to matters deemed necessary in management, and the specific scope of matters to be delegated and decision-making authority according to the job position are stipulated in the Internal Approval Regulations.

Principle 4.9 Independence standards and qualification for independent directors

The Company elects independent external directors in accordance with the independence criteria set by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The independent external director candidates to be elected are persons who can contribute to increasing enterprise value through qualifications, ability, and deep knowledge in their fields of expertise. In addition, those who can participate actively in constructive discussion and express their opinions frankly at the board of directors meetings are also elected. Independent external director candidates are elected by a resolution of the board of directors based on discussions at nominating committee meetings.

Supplementary principle 4.11.(1) Views on overall balance of knowledge, etc., diversity, and size of the board of directors

The Company stipulates the maximum number of directors at 15 in the Articles of Incorporation. The board of directors elects director candidates who are considered the most suitable for the position, regardless of their nationality, ethnicity, gender, or age, based on discussions by the nominating committee.

At present, there are 11 directors serving, all of whom have a wealth of knowledge and experience regarding business management. Four independent external directors have been elected, and they hold constructive and lively discussions at the board of directors meetings from diverse perspectives, including outside perspectives.

The Company explains the views regarding the overall composition of the board of directors, and the policy and procedures regarding election, as necessary.

Supplementary principle 4.11.(2) Status of concurrent positions of external directors and external audit and supervisory board members

The Company's directors and audit and supervisory board members ensure that their concurrent positions at other companies are limited to a small number and take care to see that these positions do not interfere with the performance of their duties.

The Company intends to disclose the main concurrent positions held by each director and audit and supervisory board member in the Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Supplementary principle 4.11.(3) Analysis and evaluation of the overall effectiveness of the board of directors

The Company's board of directors conducts an analysis and evaluation of the effectiveness of the board of directors with the support of an independent organization, for the purpose of working on continuously enhancing the effectiveness.

This fiscal year the board of directors conducted a questionnaire survey and individual interviews for all of the representative directors, external directors and audit and supervisory board members, and evaluated the governance system as a listed company, the “offense and defense” in management, nomination and remuneration, dialogue with stakeholders, and operation of the board of directors.

The results thereof show that the Company’s board of directors “is effectively functioning overall.”

Meanwhile, it was recognized that there is room for improvement with respect to the monitoring functions of the board of directors, such as oversight of risk management, and it was confirmed that the board of directors would seek to improve the functions at its meeting held in May 2019.

The Company will continue to conduct evaluations of the effectiveness of the board of directors going forward in an effort to enhance effectiveness of the board of directors.

Supplementary principle 4.14.(2)

The Group conducts the following training for its directors and audit and supervisory board members to enable them to learn important skills and knowledge needed to stay abreast of current developments.

- The Group distributes the Directors’ Handbook covering the responsibilities and obligations of directors to the Company’s directors and audit and supervisory board members.
- The Group regularly conducts training regarding important topics related to compliance for directors and audit and supervisory board members of the Company and directors of its major domestic subsidiaries.

The Company’s full-time audit and supervisory board members also actively participate in seminars and training sessions held by Public Interest Incorporated Association Japan Audit & Supervisory Board Members Association, as well as meetings to exchange information with audit and supervisory board members of listed companies.

Principle 5.1 Policy for constructive dialogue with shareholders

The Company works to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders and other investors by assigning IR duties to Director, Executive Vice President & CFO and has established the Investor Relations Department as the responsible department. The department conducts IR activities in close coordination with related departments such as Accounting, Finance, Legal, and General Administration. The Company discloses this structure on its website and in its Corporate Governance Report.

The management and the Investor Relations Department respond to requests for dialogue from shareholders and other investors within reason, paying careful attention to the handling of material facts subject to insider trading regulations.

In addition to individual discussions, the Company holds earnings results briefings and briefings for retail investors to explain the status of its businesses to shareholders and other investors. The Investor Relations Department compiles the opinions received from shareholders and other investors through dialogue and periodically reports them to management.

4. Policy on Measures to Protect Minority Shareholders in Conducting Transactions with Controlling Shareholder

The Company recognizes that related party transactions including transactions with the parent company group are transactions that may have an impact on the financial position or the results of operations by using the advantageous position of the related party. As such, in implementing related party transactions, the Company carries out especially important transactions upon approval of the board of directors each time, by paying particular attention to whether such transactions are rational from a managerial standpoint of the Group and whether the terms and conditions of the transactions are appropriate compared to external transactions, in accordance with the Related Party Regulations and Related Party Transactions Management Manual.

Even with regard to related party transactions that do not fall under especially important transactions, the Finance and Accounting Division monitors the aggregate amount and details of such transactions once a year in principle.

5. Other Special Circumstances Which May Have Material Impact on Corporate Governance

The Company is a subsidiary of SBG and its subsidiary SoftBank Group Japan Corporation.

The Company has taken measures to ensure independence from the parent company, such as the removal of matters to be resolved by and matters to be reported to the parent companies in advance, the reduction of personnel relationships such as concurrent positions of officers and employees, and the elimination of borrowings and debt guarantees from the parent company, in preparation for listing.

As a result, the Company has been able to establish systems that enable independent business operation through minimized involvement of the parent companies.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

The remuneration for directors and audit and supervisory board members at the Company is to determine such remuneration by confirming that it is at an appropriate level compared to remuneration for domestic company managers roughly of the same or larger business scale based on the survey concerning remuneration for domestic company managers conducted by an independent organization.

The policy for determining directors' remuneration is to enhance the motivation of directors to contribute to improving not only short-term but also medium- to long-term business results, while controlling excessive risk-taking. The policy aims to enable sustainable growth and improvement of medium- to long-term enterprise value, while realizing steady profit growth, creating stable cash flows, and establishing a rapport with stakeholders. The basic policy for the ratio of payment of basic remuneration to performance-based remuneration shall be "basic remuneration: performance-based remuneration = 1 : 2.3-3.2" in principle. The performance-based remuneration is allowed to fluctuate within the range of 0-1.5 times the base amount by position. The performance-based remuneration comprises cash payment and share-based payment, and the ratio of payment has been determined to be "cash payments: share-based payments = 1 : 1."

As for external directors, who are independent from the execution of duties, audit and supervisory board members and external audit and supervisory board members, who audit the execution of duties by directors, the policy is to pay them only basic remuneration.

[Supporting System for External Directors and/or External Audit and Supervisory Board Members]

The Company seeks to ensure that all officers, including the external audit and supervisory board members, can participate fully in the board of directors meetings having fully grasped the specific details of the agenda for discussion. The secretariat to the board of directors therefore provides them with materials for the board of directors meetings beforehand, including supplemental briefings and other information as required. The audit and supervisory board office has been established to support the duties of all the audit and supervisory board members, including the external members. The office comprises dedicated personnel who act under the directions of the audit and supervisory board members to gather information, investigate matters, and give other assistance.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

As of the date of submission of this document, an overview of the Company's institutional establishment is as follows.

- The board of directors consists of 11 directors, including four external directors, and their terms of office shall last until the conclusion of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held with respect to the final fiscal year ending within one year after election.
- The nominating committee and the remuneration committee are established voluntarily as advisory bodies to the board of directors. The nominating committee and the remuneration committee comprise the CEO and independent external directors to ensure independence of the committees.
- The audit and supervisory board consists of four members, two of whom are external members.

In addition, the Company has introduced the executive officer system to clarify the management supervisory function and further strengthen the business execution function of the board of directors while ensuring speedier management.

- The Company has concluded a contract with directors (excluding executive directors) and audit and supervisory board members to limit liability for damages stipulated in Paragraph 1, Article 423 of the Companies Act in accordance with Paragraph 1, Article 427 of the Companies Act. The maximum amount of liability for damages is the minimum amount of liability for damages stipulated by relevant laws and regulations.

<Overview of the implementation status of the system to ensure the appropriateness of the operations>

1. Matters concerning compliance

The Company continues to conduct compliance training for its directors and employees, as well as offering information and giving advice, and so forth, as necessary, for enhancing the compliance system. In addition, the Company works to ensure the effectiveness of compliance of the Company by establishing and operating hotlines so that directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries can report and consult directly. The effects of these measures are reviewed to make improvements, as necessary.

2. Matters concerning risk

Based on the SoftBank Group's Risk Management Rules, departments responsible for each risk at the Company manage risks and continuously work on reducing them and preventing the occurrence thereof. In addition, the Internal Audit Department summarizes the status of risk evaluation and analysis, as well as countermeasures against and responses to risks implemented in each responsible department and periodically reports its findings to the board of directors. Group companies also manage risks individually and continuously work on reducing risks and preventing the occurrence thereof.

3. Matters concerning internal audits

The Internal Audit Department carries out audits on the effectiveness of the system for compliance with laws, regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation as well as the risk management process at the Company. In addition, the department continuously carries out audits of Group companies deemed as having a high risk and reports the results of the audits to the CEO each time.

4. Matters concerning the execution of duties by directors and employees

The Company ensures efficiency in the execution of duties by its directors and employees based on internal regulations such as the Board of Directors Rules, Internal Approval Regulations and Regulations on Segregation and Authority of Duties. The Company also ensures an environment where matters can be fully discussed at the board of directors meetings by directors.

5. Matters concerning the execution of duties by audit and supervisory board members

The audit and supervisory board members attend the Company's important meetings and arrange opportunities to interview directors and employees of the Company and the Group, as necessary. In addition, they continue to enhance cooperation by holding regular meetings with the independent auditor and audit and supervisory board members and other personnel of major subsidiaries. Through these efforts, the audit and supervisory board members ensure the effectiveness of audits.

Status of internal audits and audit and supervisory board member audits

The Internal Audit Department conducts internal audits of the overall duties of the Company as an organization directly under the CEO, and also conducts audits of subsidiaries as a parent company. The Internal Audit Department mainly evaluates business compliance with laws and regulations and effectiveness of internal control, and reports the results of internal audits to the CEO and the board of directors of the Company while explaining them to the audit and supervisory board members.

The Company adopts the audit and supervisory board member system, and the audit and supervisory board consists of four members, two of whom are external members. Each audit and supervisory board member carries out audit activities in accordance with the "audit policy" and "audit plan" established by the audit and supervisory board, and conducts efficient and effective audits regarding the status of execution of duties by directors mainly by attending important meetings, listening to reports, reviewing important documents, and conducting on-site inspections. Furthermore, each member receives reports of the Internal Audit Department, as well as receives briefings regarding the status and results of internal audits as necessary. In addition, the audit and supervisory board verifies whether the independent auditor maintains its independent position and conducts appropriate audits, while receiving reports on the status of execution of duties and requesting explanations as necessary in an effort to strengthen the audit system through close cooperation with the independent auditor.

Status of audit by the independent auditor

The certified public accountants who executed the audit duties of the Company are Tomoyasu Maruyama, Masayuki Yamada and Kazuyuki Oeda, who belong to Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC. None of the certified public accountants executed the audit duties for more than seven consecutive years. From the 33rd fiscal year, Ichiro Nakayama has been replaced by Tomoyasu Maruyama as the engagement partner. The assistants for the audit duties of the Company consist of a total of 123 assistants, comprising 56 certified public accountants and 67 assistant certified public accountants.
