*Notes*

- The agent must be either the subscriber's family member, guardian, curator or assistant. * Provided, however, that any person other than the subscriber's family member may become the agent with respect to the repairing of mobile phones.
- Please submit the agent's personal identification documents, and the subscriber's and the agent's family identification documents.
- *The term "family identification documents" refers to documents which enable the confirmation of a family relationship such as a certificate of items entered in the resident record, and health insurance card.
- In the case of a new subscription contract, only if the subscriber is disabled and is unable to come to a shop on his/her own, the Company will accept a subscription request through the agent.
- In the case of the assignment of a mobile phone service contract, only if the pre-assignment subscriber designates his/her agent as the post-assignment subscriber, the Company will accept a subscription request through the agent.
- However, the subscriber him/herself is required to submit a request in some cases such as changes in telephone charge statement, and changes in password.
- The term "installment contract" means an individual installment purchase contract under the general conditions for individual installment purchases or an individual credit purchase intermediation contract under the general conditions for intermediation of individual credit purchases.
